

This fall at the

WALDORF SCHOOL of Lexington

Saturday, September 25, Noon - 2:00 p.m.

Welcome back potluck picnic on the back field. Come celebrate our 40th year! Games by Ralph Brooks. Tunes by classic rock n' roll band, "Six." Cake by Quebrada. Sponsored by the Parent Community Association.

Saturday, October 2, 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

East Lexington Fair. A neighborhood fair featuring a marionette show, games, tasty treats, and fun children's activities. Co-hosted by Waldorf School of Lexington, Follen Church, & Wilson Farms.

Friday, November 5, 7:00 p.m.

Viennese Ball, presented by the Eighth Grade Class of 2011. Put on your dancing shoes and waltz to a live ensemble.

Sunday, November 21, 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

Alumni Panel & Reception. Young Alumni answer your questions about how Waldorf education has informed their high school, college, and early professional experiences. Open to adults, and students in grades 7 & 8.

Wednesday, November 24, 10:00 a.m.

Thanksgiving Assembly. Curriculum presentations of music, movement, foreign languages, and verse by each of the grades.

Saturday, December 4, 10:00 - 4:00 p.m.

40th Annual Holiday Fair, with live music, a Mummer's play, marionette shows, children's crafts, hearty luncheon, and unique, hand-made gifts from over 35 area artisans. Young Alumni Reception from 12 - 2.

Saturday, December 11, 5:00 - 6:15 p.m.

Winter Holiday Sing. Families join to sing songs of the season at this traditional community gathering. Bring a friend!

Fridays, 12:00 - 1:30 p.m. and/or Wednesdays, 1:30 - 3:00 p.m.

Waldorf Park, drop-in play program for caregivers & their young children. See website for dates.

Visit our website for up-to-date information about programs & events: www.thewaldorfschool.org

Celebrating 40 Years: 1971-2011

The Waldorf School of Lexington is excited to celebrate our 40th year of making Waldorf education accessible to a wide range of Metrowest children and their families.

Our mission is to cultivate in our students:

- A sense of wonder
- Creative and inquiring minds
- A well-founded belief in their capacities
- Strength of character, will and intellect
- Compassion for and interest in all life.

We welcome your financial support of our work with a gift to the 40th Anniversary Annual Fund: www.thewaldorfschool.org.

Open Houses & Information Sessions

Meet with teachers, visit classrooms, view student work. Learn what makes Waldorf education unique.

FALL FAMILY OPEN HOUSE:

Sunday, October 24, 1:00 - 3:00 p.m.

WINTER EARLY CHILDHOOD OPEN HOUSE:

Saturday, January 22, 10:00 - 12:00 p.m.

INFORMATION SESSIONS for adults

8:45 a.m.- 11:00 a.m.

Wednesday, November 17

Tuesday, December 7

Wednesday, January 12, and more...